NOTICE OF SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING TO AMEND BYLAWS

Sunday, January 11, 2026 – 9:30 a.m.
(See Page 7 for Details)

Happy New Year Beloveds,

My gratitude to the entire All Faiths Family for all your love and support of our Beloved Community through the year 2025. The year 2026 is upon us, as we have turned the page to another year much has changed and much has remained the same.

2026 is inescapable, time does not wait for us to catch up, it keeps moving. It is at this time of year that uncertainty fills me with strange fears of what it will be like.

The year 2025 started off with immense change with DOGE, dismantling DEI, the continued war on those of us who are WOKE, detention centers housing immigrants, events and poor performance of our leaders and so much more that it is easy to lose hope. But we must move forward with locked arms marching in solidarity in body and spirit with love and peace in our heart.

But how...

There is a mantra I repeat daily, "Everyday, in every way, all my needs are met," I write it in my journal, and recite it. I find it settles me down, and reminds me to trust even in the midst of uncertainty.

Uncertainty is tricky for us humans not because we are weak, but because of how our mind and bodies evolved. We like to anticipate what is next. We are constantly running models...if I do this, then that will happen. But uncertainty breaks those models, creating a gap the brain cannot fill and the gap feels like danger. Which elicits various responses as our nervous system tries to adjust, we become heightened, stressed, unsettled or off even when nothing is wrong, all because there is uncertainty.

Uncertainty is a place of disruption off center... I might be wrong, I might lose control, I might not be who I thought I was, causing destabilization and yes, sometimes I feel powerlessness due to uncertainty.

But there is hope...

Uncertainty has helped me dissolve the illusion of control, by recognizing that certainty narrows the field of imagination, whereas uncertainty frees me to imagine. It interrupts habits, because uncertainty disrupts autopilot.

As we enter the new year, let us lean into uncertainty from, "I know," to "let's find out." There are new things on the horizon as we find out what they are, let us lean into collaboration, listen with our hearts, trust improvisation and make meaning together. Let us remember that uncertainty destabilizes identity just enough to allow for transformation.

Every Sunday, we sing, "Enter Rejoice and Come In," that includes the line, "Don't be afraid of some change." Because if identity is too rigid nothing new can enter, it is uncertainty that softens the edges of change. As the minister and spiritual anchor of All Faiths I encourage us to embrace the mystery of change that requires us to take the spiritual posture of mystics, poets, and children in trust of the unfolding.

2026 is here right next to our uncertainty, it is the moment that we surrender not as defeat but to make space for the moment when the ego stops gripping and something larger can move through. As we work to embrace change and the uncertainty of it, we must allow our habits, and rituals to stop being performance and become revelation and personal growth. That our perspective changes from feeling threatened to curiosity, from control to participation, from rigid identity to actually becoming, from closure to motion from fear of the unknown to relationship with

"When injustice becomes law, resistance becomes duty."

As we step into a new year, I am deeply grateful for the energy, wisdom, and commitment that our All Faiths Unitarian community continues to bring to our shared work. The past year has been one filled with both challenges and possibilities - both for the Congregation as well as me. It has been a period of growth, self-reflection, and opportunity.

As Board Chair, I am honored to have shared this journey with you. I am proud of the work that we have accomplished and look forward to the path ahead.

January is a time for reflection and renewal, and this month's report offers both a look back at recent progress and a glimpse ahead to the opportunities before us.

Looking Back: 2025 in Reflection

- Membership - All Faiths has welcomed 29 new members this year. Accounting for members who have left us for various reasons, this represents a 14% increase overall membership since the beginning of the year. We are out in the community sharing who we are, collaborating in events that are making a difference.

- Building & Grounds - We have made many improvements to the facility, including:

- ✓ Replacement of damaged parts of our fence, fixed issues with the patio stones and pathways around the building.

- ✓ Installed a new hurricane resistant street sign with solar lighting.

- ✓ Purchased new office furniture for the Administrator & Minister as well as new tables and an umbrella for the patio.

- ✓ Painted the exterior of the building as well as inside the offices.

- ✓ Repurposed the existing sprinkler system to water the gardens.

- ✓ Repaved and re-striped the parking lot.

- ✓ Upgraded our Audio/Visual system and new choir mics

- ✓ Most significantly, we have successfully developed a Building Expansion plan to create a larger entryway and children and youth meeting space. We are currently out for quotes

- Outreach - Our Social Justice Teams have had a busy year. Significant activities include:

- ✓ Partnering with the QLC for various events.

- ✓ Attending 3 Pride events & hosting booths to represent All Faiths.

- ✓ Attending various protest marches (No Kings, Earth Day etc).

- ✓ Re-engaging with Lee Interfaith for Empowerment (LIFE) group.

- ✓ Achieving renewal of the UUA Welcoming Congregation for 2025.

- ✓ Hosting educational & training programs for the Congregation.

- ✓ Participating in the Compassionate Fort Myers Project to help develop plans to make the city a more compassionate place to work and live.

Miscellaneous Actions:

- ✓ As a result of our Membership Outreach, we are now home to the Girl Scout Troop #5050 and serve as their regular meeting place. In return, they help All Faiths with various volunteer efforts.

- ✓ We conducted a review of our facility and programs with the Sheriff's Office to improve security for our membership.

Looking Ahead: Priorities for 2026

Let's begin 2026 with action. Small steps today build the mountains you climb tomorrow. Let us dream boldly, plan clearly, act relentlessly to achieve our plans. This year, the Board will be working on some significant events that will move All Faiths into the future. These include:

1. The Ordination of our Minister. A Congregational meeting is scheduled for January 11th to amend the bylaws that will set the rules by which we can hold a vote for Ordination. A special committee will then start working on developing the plans to make this a reality.

2. The Board is looking forward to finalizing our work on the Building Expansion project. After the contractor quotes are received, we will hold a vote to approve the plans and start a Capital Campaign necessary to make this possible. This has been a long time in the planning and is highly anticipated.

3. Founders Day 25th Anniversary. This will be a major milestone in the life of the Congregation. A lot of planning and preparation has been done to make this a special event.

4. All Faiths must continue to be a presence in the community. This is the only way to continue to grow our congregation and provide the outreach that is the Heart of who we are. Of special interest to me is starting a Hunger Team to help address the issue of Food Insecurity. This is something that is needed more than ever in today's climate and we can answer that call.

5. I am committed to hosting a Mini Golf event that will be a fundraiser as well as a way to showcase All Faiths to the neighborhood to increase membership. It is titled All Faiths - a Spring Spectacular.

6. On January 18th we will be holding a Job Fair event called "All Faiths in Action". Our intent is to showcase our various teams and committees and will be held on the patio after service in order to inform members of all the work that our teams are doing and hopefully attract more participation.

7. Continue to support initiatives that address climate justice, racial equity, and LG-BTQ+ inclusion.

8. Find new ways to explore opportunities and connect and collaborate with other organizations across the area.

NEWCOMERS ORIENTATION

Hosted by Alberita Johnson and the Membership Committee

Saturday, January 17, 2026
10:00 a.m. — 12:00 p.m.

How much do you know about your congregation?
How much do you know about Unitarian Universalism? Did you know that UU congregations are self-governing, and that authority and responsibility are vested in the membership of the congregation, or that we adopt our own bylaws, elect our own officers and approve our own budgets?

At All Faiths we want our members to understand what we believe in, what we strive for and what we celebrate. We encourage every member to participate actively in their faith community.

If you are a relatively new member and have joined All Faiths in the past two or three years, or maybe you're just thinking about becoming a member, we invite you to join us on Saturday, January 17, from 10-12pm for a fun and informative workshop that will bring you up to speed on the community you chose to become a part of. Contact: Carole Latino, Membership Co-Chair, at carolelatino@gmail.com.

Sign up on the bulletin board.

JANUARY CHILD & YOUTH PROGRAM

by Sharon Heinrich, CYP Director

In January we will lift up the UU principle of Justice as we explore the theme “Practicing Resistance”. Through stories, songs and activities we will try to understand when and how we should resist.

Opening: We are here together with love at our center. We will think with our minds, love with our hearts, and create with our hands.

January 4: No CYP

January 11: Resisting Fitting In “The Emperor’s New Clothes” Lead, follow or go your own way game

January 18: Resisting Racism (MLK Day) “The Parable of the River” What is unfair? How do we help make things fair?

January 25: Resisting Monkey Mind “Taming the Monkey Mind” Focus on breath .

Closing: As we make our choices each day, may we make them with love at our center.

I would like to encourage our congregation to share talent, skill and knowledge with our young people. Please let me know if you would like me to schedule a short time on a Sunday morning for you to share with the young ones.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Sunday, January 11, 2026 – 9:30 a.m.
(Before Service)

Members of All Faiths Unitarian Congregation, Inc. are invited to attend a Special Meeting of the Congregation, to vote

Barb McFarlane, Secretary

SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL
MEETING - JANUARY 11, 2026
9:30 A.M.

In the first step towards Ordination of our Commissioned Lay Minister, Alberita Johnson, the Board of Directors has called for a Special Meeting so that the Bylaws can be amended to include the following:

Change the Bylaw Article XI: MINISTER to add the following new section (in bold):

ARTICLE XI: MINISTER

Section 7. Ordination of a Lay, Interim, Developmental, Settled or Contract Minister

If the Board of Directors or the Members via a petition desire to consider ordination, of the Lay, Interim, Developmental, Settled or Contract Minister, a majority of the membership shall constitute a quorum for conducting such business. The Ordination must be approved by a vote of no less than 75 percent of the Members present at the specially called meeting for that purpose. Voting will be done consistent with Article VI CONGREGATIONAL MEETINGS, SECTION 4 Voting and SECTION 5 Proxy.

ORDINATION PROCESS: see Pages 13 & 14

Vote on Ordination: Special Congregational Meeting on February 15, 2026, at 9:30am

Q&A Session: Sunday, February 8, 2026, at 9:30am

“In Covenant, We Grow”

We are a covenantal people, bound not by perfection
but by promise—
the promise to walk together
even when the way is uneven.

We know that growth does not come from fear or from public reckoning, but from trust that the work of becoming is already underway.

So we choose to notice
when words are spoken with care,
when emotion is held rather than released,
when patience replaces impulse,
and professionalism becomes a practice of love.

We believe in the inherent worth and dignity of every person—
not as an abstract idea,
but as something lived, learned,
and sometimes struggled toward.
In the beloved community,
accountability is not punishment,
but accompaniment.
Forgiveness is not forgetting,
but faith in transformation.

Let us be generous witnesses to one another’s effort,
calling forth what is strongest and truest,
knowing that what we bless, we help to grow.

This is our way:
to expect much,
to forgive freely,
and to trust that grace,
patiently practiced,
can shape us all.

— Frank Geltner

RAINBOW CONNECTION NEWS

David Donovan, Chair

Happy New Year to everyone, and welcome back! I hope each of you had a wonderful Holiday break, filled with rest, laughter, and time with the people who matter most. A new year brings new opportunities and together, we will continue to build on our successes of the last couple of years.

In 2025, we achieved so much. We celebrated many milestones and “showed up” for each other and the LGBTQ+ Community in general. With your help we were able to renew our Welcoming Congregation program for the 2nd time. This is a significant achievement that not only honors LGBTQ+ milestones but is also a way to let everyone know that we are an open and welcoming congregation. It also is a way to educate and provide awareness of topics that our members may not have known.

We strengthened ties with local LGBTQ+ organizations by actively participating in various Pride events in the community and supporting programs like the Interfaith Alliance of SWFL and St John the Apostle MCC Church. These partnerships remind us that our work is part of a larger movement for justice. This year, we hope to continue our sponsorship of the Cape Coral Pride again. We have committed to enter an All Faiths Pride Float in the parade.

All Faiths also was honored to be able to host a section of the National AIDS Memorial Quilt earlier in the year. In fact, a family of one of the names on the quilt came to visit the quilt and was very moved by our showing. This was a once in a lifetime opportunity and serves as a solemn reminder of the people who lost their lives to the scourge of AIDS.

Last year, due to a very generous congregation, our Share the Plate collections raised $455 in June and $375 in October for the Rainbow Connection team. Our second annual Lasagna Luncheon is expected to provide an additional $800. All proceeds are in support of Cape Coral Pride.

It was a huge honor that All Faiths was allowed to host a panel of the AIDS Quilt

One memory from last year that I was so honored to be a part of, was when we honored our Trans and Drag brothers and sisters in the Black and Latino community by hosting a Dance Party where everyone dressed up to honor their lives as depicted in the mini-series POSE. It was so great to see all the fun.

As we step into 2026, All Faiths Unitarian Congregation continues to live into our promise of being a Welcoming Congregation—not as a static label, but as an ongoing, active commitment. January is a natural time for reflection and renewal, and for The Rainbow Connection Team, it's also a time to ask: How can we deepen our welcome, strengthen our advocacy, and nurture our community in the year ahead?

In a world where LGBTQ+ rights and dignity are still contested and marginalized in many places, our congregation's commitment to inclusion is both a spiritual practice and a form of public witness. It is a way of saying, in word and deed, that every person is sacred, every identity is worthy, and every love is a blessing.

I'm excited to see what the Rainbow Connection will accomplish this year. I appreciate all the energy and engagement from the team as we continue to grow and do great things in the community. Let's make this our best year yet!

RACIAL EQUITY TEAM NEWS

by Carole Latino, Co-Chair

First, I must say I was so proud to see the great group that showed up for our last Racial Equity Team meeting. Lewis Robinson resigned at the previous meeting and I was nominated to take his place as Co-Chair. I'm also happy to welcome Lodovic Kimble to the table to join us. He has worked with our community on several occasions and is a retired Professor. I feel that with Lodovic's background he is a perfect fit for our group. I am confident we will be moving forward with the Racial Equity Team and growing.

It's not the black folk that have to fix racism. The only people that can eradicate racism are the white people. We have to call out racism when its ugly head appears. This is going to be a long journey, but a worthwhile one.

So please come and join us this coming January. 13th at 10 a.m. We meet once a month on the second Tuesday at 10 a.m.

'Hope' is the thing with feathers
That perches in the soul
And sings the tune without the words
And never stops
At all

— Emily Dickinson

the unknown.

This new year will usher in change, updates to our bylaws so All Faiths can ordain, our 25th Anniversary, creating a larger space for our Children and Youth programming and meeting room, and enlarging our entry way, departing and new Board members, beautification of our building and Grounds, and probably two Sunday services. And I am sure much more, as we move through the year.

Family, we can hold all of this, by continuing our rituals, assembling together, and imagining. This is our Beloved Community, we are responsible for her rise and fall. For us to meet the moment, let us continue to give of our Time, our Talents and our Treasures. It takes a village.

My prayer for you in this year of 2026, Everyday, in every way may all your needs be met.

Amen and Ashe

Happy Kwanzaa and Happy New Year Family, I love you!
We are on this journey together.

All aboard...Destination Joy.

Love, Minister Albie

BOARD NOTES (continued from pg. 3)

A Call to Engagement

The work of the All Faiths Board is not separate from the life of our congregation — it is an extension of it. Soon, you will all be invited to look into your hearts and determine how much All Faiths, and the work we do, is worth to you. A Stewardship Pledge Drive will soon be kicking off to allow us to meet our commitments for the next fiscal year and insure that we continue to grow and do the AWESOME work that we do. It will be called “Growing our Spiritual Garden” and you will hear more in the coming weeks.

The Board is here to serve, to listen, and to lead in partnership with you. I invite you to stay connected, ask questions, and share your vision for our shared future. The strength of our faith & tradition lies in our collective wisdom and our willingness to imagine boldly.

As we begin 2026, may we remember that our covenant calls us not only to care for one another but also to act together for justice and compassion in the world.

Respectfully yours,

David J. Donovan,
Board Chair

Happy New Year Wishes

2026-'27 STEWARDSHIP DRIVE

by Ken Malkin, Chair

The Stewardship Committee has been planning All Faiths' 2026-27 Pledge Campaign. The theme is Growing Our Spiritual Garden. The kick-off will be January 11th. Pledge cards will be sent electronically, can be picked up at church on Sunday; can be found on All Faiths' website, allfaithsuu.org, or will be mailed to those without computer access.

By pledging, the Finance Committee and All Faiths' Board of Directors can plan expenditures for the upcoming fiscal year. You can give your contribution in a manner that best suits your budget: in one lump sum or by breaking your payment into monthly, weekly or quarterly payments.

Your support is always appreciated. Remember: no pledge is too big or too small.

CLIMATE ACTION TEAM NEWS

by Joan Marshall, Co-Chair

Your Climate Action Team faced new challenges last year as the Trump administration acted to halt or even reverse government programs addressing the ever-increasing impact of climate change on our nation and the world.

Still, we remain undeterred in our commitment to the fundamental UU principle, “Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.”

In 2026 we will continue to connect with other organizations in our efforts to help mitigate the increasingly destructive impact of climate change both now and in the future. In our December meeting we discussed specific areas of concern where we can focus our efforts to promote positive action. These include: (1) an outreach to young people, beginning with the Girl Scout Troop that meets at All Faiths, (2) promoting the use of solar energy for our schools and other government facilities, (3) addressing the issue of air pollution, specifically from the incinerators used for our trash, (4) educating ourselves and others about the threats of plastics pollution to both our environment and our bodies.

Our CAT meetings take place on Zoom at 1:30 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month. We urge you to join us with your suggestions and ideas for how we can most effectively reach out to others and engage them in this struggle to protect and preserve the planet that both we and all future generations must depend upon.

JOYS & SORROWS

With our apologies for any omissions, here are the joys & sorrows expressed by our members in December.

Doug Cartwright is doing better after having his big toe amputated. We hope that he continues to flourish.

Louise Close celebrated the return to her restored home on Fort Myers Beach. When Ian hit, she learned that her son's wife was pregnant. 3 years later, when they returned to their home, she learned that they were having another daughter – she calls them her “bookends”.

Annely Hudanick expressed her joy that her vision has improved enough so that she can drive again.

Dottie Mayol has been diagnosed with rheumatoid arthritis. We hope that she will be given beneficial treatment.

We are grateful for the many blessings in our lives, and for the loving care provided in our community.

This year, as we celebrate our 25th Anniversary, we invite you to contribute to All Faiths' Capital Fund. These additional gifts will support the renovation of our Community Room and the expansion of our Vestibule. Permits have already been secured, and the project is currently out to bid with local contractors.

This effort began more than a year ago with generous seed money from a devoted congregant, along with legacy gifts from the estate of Carol and Ed Elrod. Their kindness helped set this vision in motion.

Your generosity today will help launch All Faiths into its next quarter century. We are deeply grateful to all our past and present members and friends for sustaining our spiritual home and helping our community continue to grow and thrive.

INFORMATION REGARDING ALL FAITHS MINISTER AND ORDINATION

What is the recent history of All Faiths Minister position?

1. Over 3 years ago our settled minister left for another post in the UK.
2. To qualify as All Faiths settled minister under UUA guidelines, the minister must be in fellowship with the UUA and normally this requires graduation from a seminary with a Master of Divinity followed by a 2-year ministerial residency. It also requires an affirmative vote by at least 90% of the congregational members. An affirmative vote results in the total Congregation hiring the settled minister. The Board then provides guidance and oversight in a collaborative relationship with the minister.
3. The All Faiths search committee was unsuccessful in recommending any candidate for the Minister position who was in fellowship with the UUA and met those qualifications. The search committee then recommended that the Board consider hiring our Children and Youth Director to serve as our Lay Minister. At the time, she was in the process of completing her Commissioned Lay Minister program. She was hired as the Lay Minister on September 1, 2023.
4. Our Lay Minister does not have the necessary credentials to be in fellowship with the UUA and therefore cannot be considered as our settled minister. But our Lay Minister has been credentialed as a Commissioned Lay Minister by the Central East Region of the UUA.
  - a. The current contract with our Lay Minister currently ends on March 31, 2026; and the Board of Directors is currently in the process of renewing the contract for 1 additional year.
  - b. As a Lay Minister, she is employed and supervised by the Board of Directors.
5. There is currently no Bylaws language regarding Ordination. This is why the Board of Directors has proposed the following language:
  - a. To be ordained, the individual would need to be approved by a vote of the Congregation, requiring a majority quorum of the members to have participated and 75% approval. A special meeting of the Congregation has been scheduled for January 11, 2026 to amend our Bylaws regarding this.

What does Ordination mean in the UUA and at All Faiths?

- A. A congregation can choose to ordain a lay person who has not gone through the UUA's full multi-year credentialing process for professionally educated ministers. However, this is considered a "local" ordination and is for the ministry specific to that one congregation. Such an individual would not be in "fellowship" with the UUA as a whole, meaning they would not be eligible for the UUA's settlement process to serve other congregations or receive the same benefits as a fully fellowshiped minister.

- B. The Ordination process reflects the belief that the congregation can discern the working of the “Spirit of Life”. It is also about the transformation of the congregation and its commitment to supporting that person’s ministry. The ordination happens to the person being ordained, but it is not about that person. Rather, it is a transformational experience in which the total congregation evolves together.
- C. If our Lay Minister is affirmed by a vote of the members, she can be ordained.
  - a. She can then be referred to as “Reverend”.
- D. In essence, Ordination in the UU church is a deeply communal act where a covenanted body of people formally recognizes, affirms, and commissions one of its own to religious leadership and service.
- E. The Minister commits to leading and caring for the congregation, and the congregation commits to supporting the minister and their shared work.
- F. Through the act of Ordination, the congregation formally and publicly recognizes the individual's call to ministry and confers ministerial authority.
  - a. Authority primarily flows from the local congregation, which has the sole power to ordain an individual into the ministry.
  - b. An ordained minister has the right and expectation to speak the truth as they understand it without fear. However, ministers are expected to clarify when they are speaking as an individual versus representing the institution.
  - c. Ministerial authority empowers ministers to lead public worship, provide pastoral care and counseling, conduct rites of passage and provide vision and direction in collaboration with lay leaders.
  - d. In essence, ordination’s ministerial authority is a blend of congregational empowerment and commitment to shared leadership (with the other staff and lay leaders within the congregation) and ethical conduct within the faith’s principles.

If the Bylaw change on January 11, 2026 is approved, when would a vote on ordination take place?

- The Board of Directors has scheduled a vote on ordination for Sunday, February 15, 2026. Formal notice for the special congregational meeting would appear in the February Newsletter.

If ordination is voted for affirmatively, will the Commissioned Lay Minister be considered a Settled Minister?

- A vote by the Congregation for a candidate to become our Settled Minister requires the candidate to be in Fellowship with the UUA. If our Commissioned Lay Minister meets those requirements in the future, then such a congregational vote could be considered.
